Description

Dufour 2800 Fin Keel Sailing Yacht - Reduced To Clear Dufour 2800 Fin Keel Sailing Yacht This yacht was taken in as a part exchange against a larger boat. It recently completed a delivery trip from Hamble to Poole under its own power and motor-sailed all the way for 7 hours without missing a beat. Gelcoat on topsides and superstructure appears in good condition for age. Recently stripped back to gelcoat below the waterline with new base primer and antifouling applied. Please note, the boat currently has no cabin cushions. They were in poor condition and were unfortunately disposed of by the previous owner. A colleague who is a marine upholsterer has advised approx. £1500 to replace. Sails are in average condition. On the plus side, standing rigging was replaced in 2019. Volvo Penta 2002 18hp twin cylinder inboard diesel in running good running order. Inventory comprises roller reefing genoa and slab reefing mainsail with lazyjacks and packaway system.
